The Illinois Legislature met in Vandalia on 9 February 1831 to determine the geographical boundaries of Rock Island County, which had been a part of Jo Daviess County with the county seat at Galena since 1827. From a rare book in Blackhawk Genealogical Society's library we publish one of the earliest rural records and hope it will assist your researching.

At this writing, the 150th anniversary of the founding of Rock Island County, of 271,488 acres 40% is prime farmland. No particular city commands the well-populated area for jobs, services or recreation. The Illinois and Iowa metropolitan areas are called "The Quad-Cities USA". Many of the small hamlets of 1886 have been swallowed up in the boundaries of Rock Island, Moline and East Moline. For different reasons and times the immigrants have come and mixed the population of Belgians, Swedes, Germans, Greeks, blacks, Hispanics and Indo-Chinese.

The railroads which were so important to the growth of many communities have disappeared from most of them. Coal mines drew workers and villages for their homes. With the mines closed, many of the homes later became residences of people who worked in the metropolitan districts.

In 1885, a year before printing of this directory from which we have taken the rural excerpts, Moline became the first city in the state and the third in the nation to have electric streetcars. A five-cent fare was set!

Farmhamsburg, 1826; Stephenson, 1835; Searstown, 1860, became part of Rock Island, 1841. In 1886 the city limits of Rock Island was stretching to the top of the hill, what is now 20th avenue, in 1897. Moline was incorporated in 1848. East Moline, 1907, was called Port Byron Junction in 1903 because of the many railroad lines converging there. Watertown, 1857; Carbon Cliff, 1906; Port Byron village, 1836; Canoe Creek, 1835; Hampton, 1828, platted 1834, Silvis, incorporated in 1906; Fremont Township changed to Coe, 1857; Cordova, 1837; Canaan postoffice changed to Port Byron; Rapids City, 1838, platted in 1875. Clark's Ferry, 1832, then Rockport, 1835, became Andalusia in 1845, and incorporated in 1884. River landings in Buffalo Prairie Township were Illinois City, platted in 1837, and Vanatta Landing. Drury's Landing was in Drury Township's east part. Settlers arrived in Edgington Township in 1834 and Bowling Township in 1838.

County officers reporting for work at the courthouse at Third Avenue between 14 and 15 Streets, Rock Island, in 1886 were:

County and Probate Judge	Lucian Adams
Circuit Clerk and Ex-officio Recorder	of Deeds-Edward H. Rowman Jr.
Deputy Circuit Clerk	George W. Gamble
County Clerk	Richard A. Donaldson
Deputy Clerks	H. Kohler and James K. Cooke

Deputy Sheriff	Thomas Sharp Silvis
States Attorney	W. J. Entrikin
Treasurer	John E. Fleming
Superintendent of Schools	James H. Southwell
Surveyor	Daniel Gordon

The board of supervisors consists of 24 members, one member from each township. Rock Island has four assistant members and Moline two. Luther S. Pearsall, Port Byron, is chairman.
