PREFACE

The following Rock Island County, Illinois chancery court abstracts were taken out of the original chancery court record books then housed in the Rock Island Courthouse, mostly in the basement. My abstracting took place over a number of years, and occasionally the books were moved from place to place. They are also available on microfilm at the IRAD center at Western Illinois University in Macomb, Illinois and on at least one occasion, I abstracted part of one book from those microfilms.

I wish to emphasize that there are additional items of genealogical interest in these record books that I did not include in my abstracts such as debt cases. As my abstracting continued, I discovered a number of types of court cases usually provided the most genealogical information: divorces, separate maintenance cases, occasional change-of-name court actions, estate partitions and various cases under several titles involving deeds and land titles, sometimes called bills to quiet deeds, or bills to clear titles. Sometimes foreclosure cases included valuable genealogical information if the land/property involved an estate's heirs.

Should I go back through the first few chancery court books that I began abstracting a number of years ago, I may well find some other court actions that would provide genealogical data, so the genealogist would do well to check the original books as microfilmed by the LDS Church and available through the Family History Centers.

All of these abstracts were originally printed in the QUARTERLY of the Blackhawk Genealogical Society. Since their original publication, I have gone back through the divorce and separate maintenance cases and have checked my published marriage records for Henry Co., Illinois; Scott Co., Iowa; and Muscatine Co., Iowa for the original marriage record of those divorcing parties. Hence this volume contains material not originally published in the Blackhawk Society's QUARTERLY.
